"When we are in alignment with our purpose, the universe will roll at our feet." -Kafka

RE*PURPOSE

The word purpose is synonymous with mission, goal, intention, grand design, determination, objective, even destiny. It stands to reason that to re*purpose one's life is to enliven your reason for being, to have increased focus and clarity regarding the direction you have set your sail.

Once we have re*purposed our intentions and re*dedicated ourselves to the excellence life is waiting to unfold for us, we realize there is a shift in our heart and in our head. Which one it first begins with is not important for truly, the value is placed on the experience itself.

This re*purposing process expands our soulful-ness and brightens our reason for being. Old blockages simply melt away and a surge of new energy is available. Go to page 173 and enjoy reading about the magically marvelous and magnificent synchronicity section. For when you accomplish true re*purposing, this energy will faithfully attend to you.
